

Dangerous friends

Once upon a time there lived a mighty lion. Everyone in the forest was scared of him except a mouse.

The lion had very beautiful mane

The lion has fine mane. I will make a soft bed out of his hairs.

Daily the mice pulled out the lion's hair.

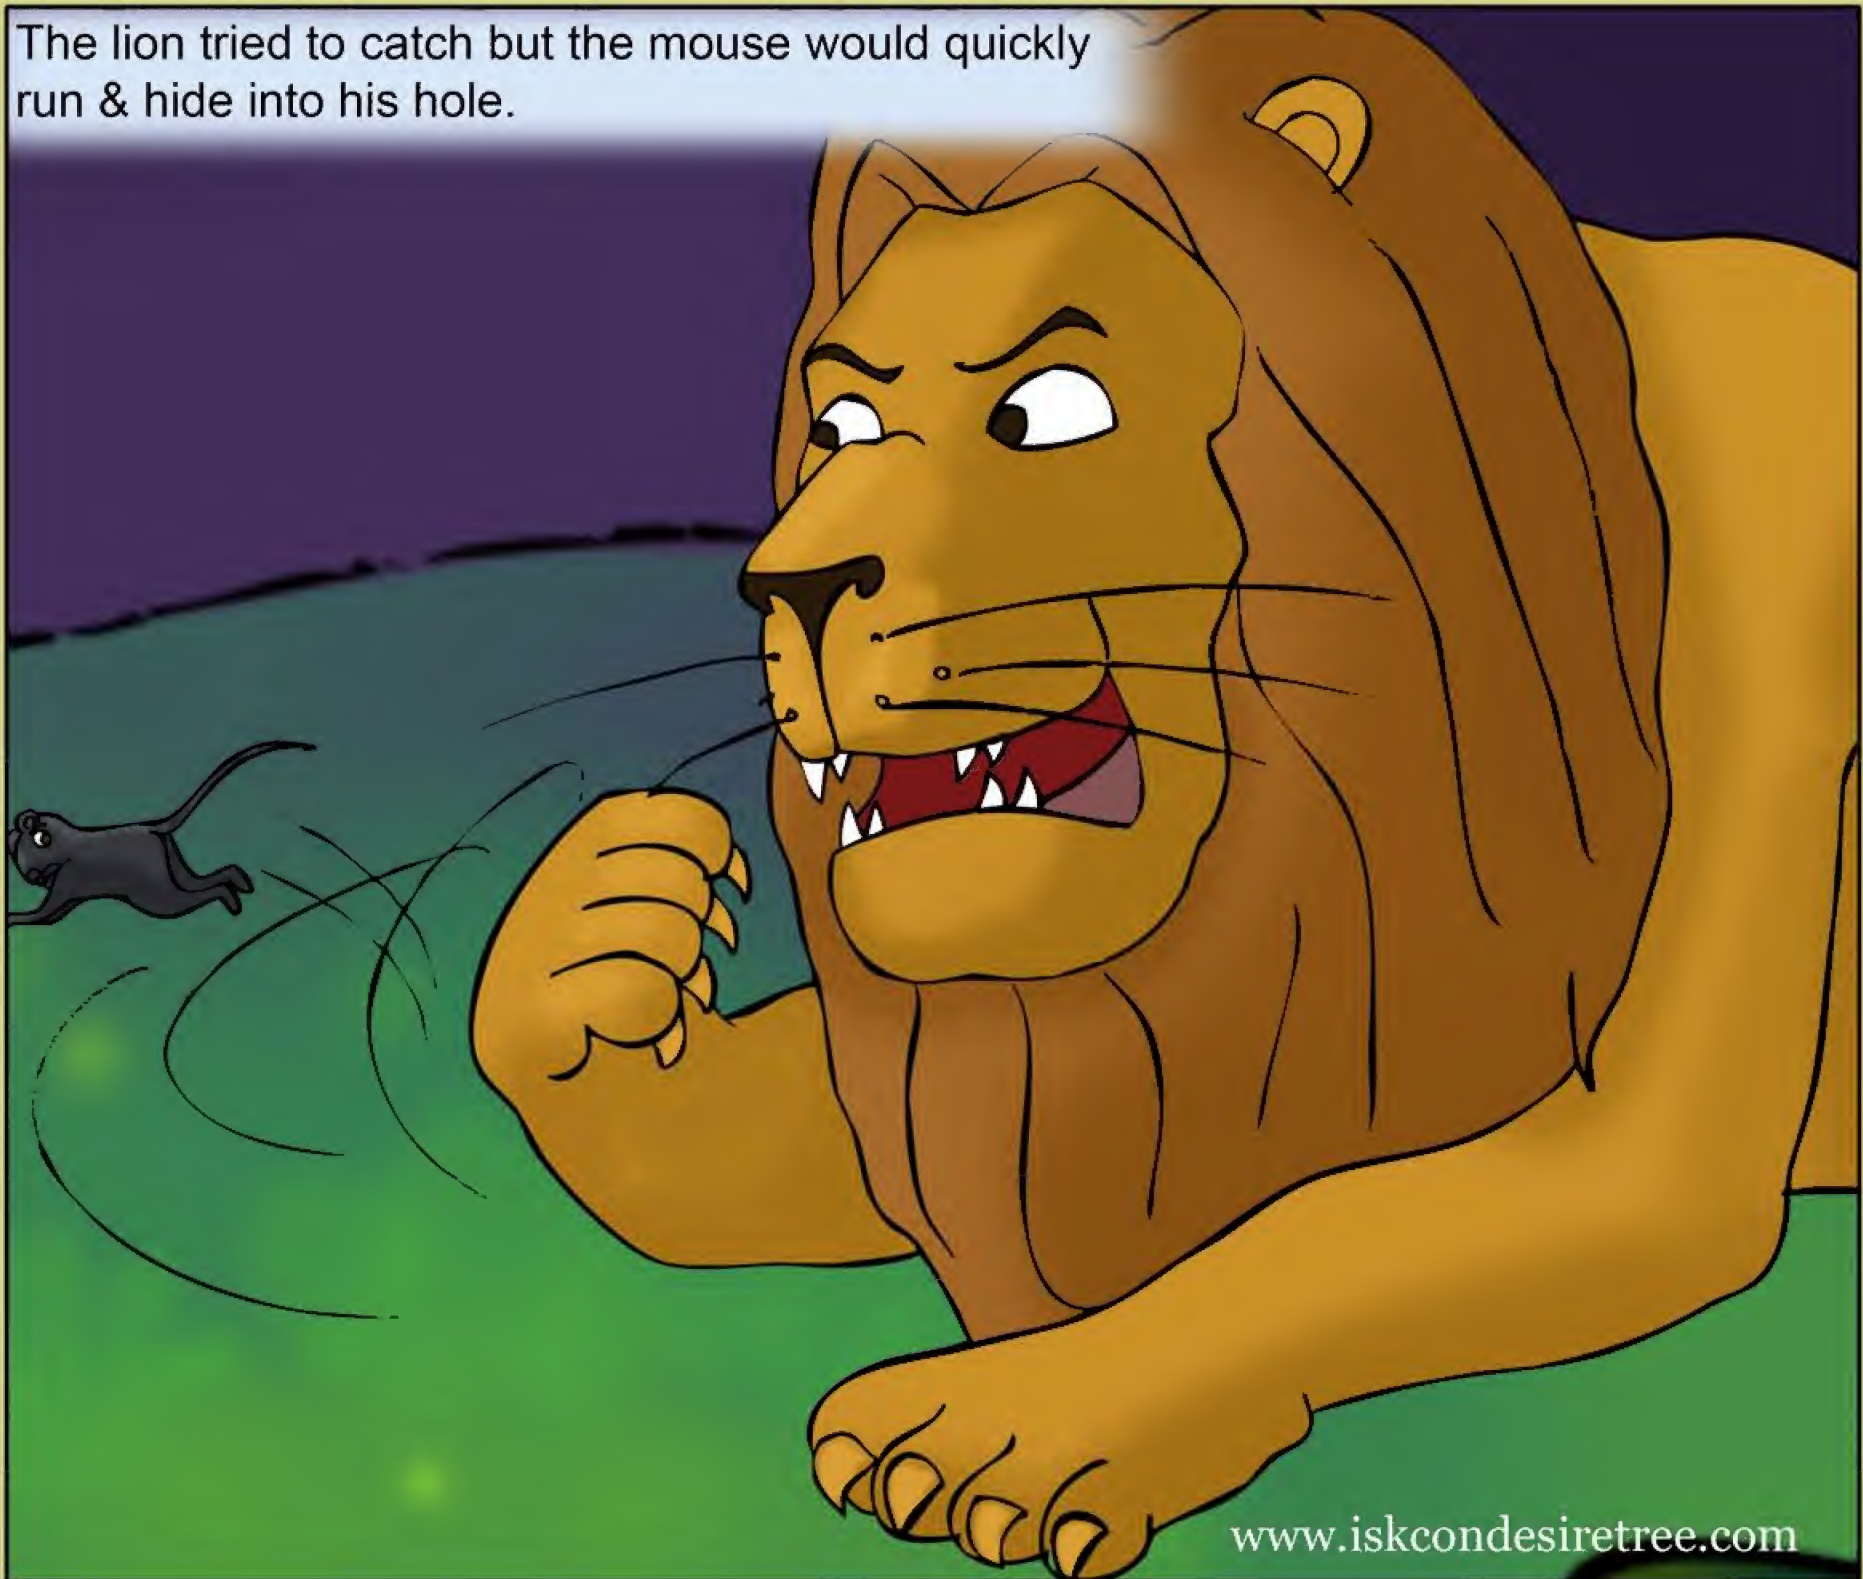

Each day...

Ouch! You again!
I am loosing my mane.

The lion tried to catch but the mouse would quickly run & hide into his hole.

The mouse is very difficult for me to catch. Let me get someone who knows how to kill the mice.

He approached a cat..

Your forefathers
were from my family & hence you are like my brother. Why don't you stay with me. I will get you very delicious food.

Why should I
come and stay with a dangerous animal
like you?

Do not worry my brother. Besides, there is a nice mouse in my cave.
You can feast on him.

I will daily get you
fishes for your food.
You have to just guard me
while I am sleeping

The cat got tempted..

All right you majesty.
The mouse will not come near you and you can have a good sleep.

This mouse has seen me and hence is not coming here. Let me hide somewhere.

Looks like the bodyguard has left. Let me go and pluck the lion's mane

As soon as the mouse came close to the lion the cat jumped from behind and caught the mouse.

The mouse was killed...

Excellent. You
did your job very well.

Soon the lion stopped feeding the cat.

I am not your servant you fool!

Soon the cat was killed.

Moral: Never make friends with wicked.
